

Norwood News -

Dear Family, Friends and Supporters,

January was, as usual, a very busy month for our residents with plenty going on at Norwood House.

The lovely ladies from Creative Minds and Creative Mojo have been in doing lots of craft work with our residents. We also had some great entertainers, including Annika, Gwyn Pritchard, Brian Shaw, Sharon Jarvis and Sing As We Go.

The Kitchen did a lovely special Chinese New Year Menu, they have shared their Chicken Noodle Soup Recipe in the Chef Corner section of the Newsletter!

Please remember to add our February dates to your diary so you can join us for some of our events. We have some special menus coming up, available on Valentine Day and Pancake Day!

Regards and Best Wishes from,

All at Norwood House

Bruce visited us for the first time and performed some new songs for the residents—which got Trevor and his wife Rachael up dancing!

Elvis entered the building, and sung to the residents. His performances are always enjoyed by all residents, staff and visitors!

Gwyn Pritchard performed for the residents, who enjoyed playing along

Tickled Pink

Tickled Pink Productions performed Beauty and the Beast for us, as usual the residents and staff loved it.

Sing As We Go

The lovely Sing As We Go came in during January and entertained our residents, who as always love to join in.
